

Free Training and Information Workshop

Every Ability Laughter Yoga - Mirrabooka

Description: In this free workshop, we will outline the changes to our Every Ability Community Sessions, the way these changes will integrate with our new training and resources, and their impact on the service providers who attend. Then, through a specially designed training session, participants will learn simple person centred techniques to encourage social engagement, develop practical skills and achieve outstanding outcomes with their clients, their team and other stakeholders.

Workshop Outcomes:

- ④ Discuss changes to EALY – Mirrabooka and how they will affect those attending
- ④ Outline our new person centred training and resources including;
 - Team Training for Service Providers
 - Shared Development Workshops for Service Providers and their Clients
 - Ongoing learning through our Community Sessions and Resources
 - Opportunities for Supervision, Feedback and Assessment
- ④ Explore practical techniques to develop skills and achieve long term results
- ④ Explore the idea of Social Inclusion and the role that service providers play within it
- ④ Explore personal health and wellbeing, the different factors that affect it and the impact these can have in our lives and practices.
- ④ Explore practical techniques to manage times of stress, improve personal wellbeing and help share these benefits with others
- ④ Explore practical techniques to create positive relationships and achieve meaningful outcomes with clients, team members and other stakeholders.
